

CREATIVITY EMPOWERING CORK

STAMP is a proud collaboration between four Cork-based art, design and craft organisations - benchspace, Cork Craft & Design, Sample Studios and Shandon Art Studios - brought together under a shared brand identity by Cork City Council and the Cult-CreaTE European project on cultural and creative tourism.

Sample Studios is one of Ireland's largest artist studios and creative work spaces with a membership of over 75 visual artists and arts practitioners. Sample-Studios launches creative careers through residencies for graduate, asylum seeker and Cork Craft & Design (CCD) is a social enterprise and membership organisation that supports and promotes professional and semiprofessional craft and design makers.

CCD provides a space for migrant artists.

We present a dynamic programme of exhibitions in The Lord Mayor's Pavilion and St. Luke's Crypt, as well as education and outreach programmes in the community. creatives to network, sell and exhibit their creations.

Shandon Art Studio was established in 2017 and is ran by a group of local artists practising different disciplines.

Since 2017 they have held Free Events and Educational Programmes; including 21 Exhibitions and Events and 3 Public Art Commissions that have had a public engagement of 6162 people.

benchspace is Ireland's first open access factory offering industry grade tools, technology and business support for professional makers & creative start-ups.

By providing an incubator for creative startups to grow and share knowledge, a great economic contribution is made along with the opportunity to make Creative Livelihoods Possible.
